RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences

Rutgers History and the Rutgers British Studies Center present the Bonnie G. Smith Lecture in European History

Lessons from the 1918-1919 Global Influenza Pandemic

Susan Kent

Professor of History; Chair, Dept of Religious Studies
University of Colorado Boulder

Professor Kent specializes in modern British history, focusing on gender, culture, imperialism, and politics. Her many books include: Gender and Politics in Britain, 1640-1990 (1999); The Global Influenza Pandemic of 1918-1919 (2012); A New History of Britain: Four Nations and an Empire (2016); and Gender, a World History (November 2020). Kent held a National Endowment for Humanities Fellowship at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton.

Details

Friday October 30, 2020, 2:00 to 4:00 pm
Please click here to register for the Event Zoom Link.

Host: History Department

Co-sponsor: Rutgers British Studies Center