Hist 508-320  The History of Southern Africa

This course covers the history of the southern region of the African continent, focusing mainly on South Africa, and on the history from the 18th century through to the end of the 20th century. Issues covered include slaver, European colonialism, industrialization, institutionalized state-sponsored racism, political movements and forms of political resistance, and urbanization. There will be two papers and a final exam.