This course will examine the gendered dynamics of politics, the body, the environment, photography, human rights, and social change in Argentina, Chile, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, and Puerto Rico in the late 19th and 20th centuries to reveal the influence of masculinity and femininity, men and women, and questions of citizenship from a gendered perspective.