510:329 - Heresy and the Medieval Church
This course aims at examining religious dissent in medieval Europe, focusing on popular heretical movements and on the responses of Church and Society. Real and alleged heretics’ beliefs and practices will be investigated as well as repression by the Church through preaching, crusade and inquisition.