

AN OUTRAGE

A DOCUMENTARY FILM ABOUT LYNCHING IN THE AMERICAN SOUTH

Filmed on-location at lynching sites in six states and bolstered by the memories and perspectives of descendants, activists, and scholars, this unusual historical documentary educates even as it serves as a hub for action to remember a long-hidden past.

ON NATIONAL TOUR

an-outrage.com

SPECIAL SCREENING WITH FILMMAKERS IN-ATTENDANCE

Filmmakers will attend for a Q&A with the audience following the film.

Discussion will be moderated by Jerrad Pacatte, History Ph.D student and Interpreting American History Graduate Workshop and Lecture Series Chairperson

February 22, 2018 • 5:00–7:00pm

301 Van Dyck Hall
College Avenue Campus
History Department

Organized by the Interpreting
American History Graduate
Workshop and Lecture Series

RUTGERS
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY