Course Synopsis

Instructor: Richard Grippaldi, Ph.D.	Mondays and Thursdays, 9:50 – 11:10am
rgrippal@rutgers.edu	Hardenbergh Hall A4

Course Description: This is a survey of American attitudes toward, and developments in regard to, war, peace, and the military, from colonial times through the Civil War. Course themes include the military obligations of citizenship; the roots and persistence of American anti-militarism, including pacifism; the attempted nationalization of defense missions and institutions by the federal government; the beginnings of an American profession of arms; and the impact of technology.

Special Permission Numbers: If you have not previously taken a course with the instructor, your request for a special permission number will be denied, so DO NOT ASK. If you have taken a course with him, know that you may be placed on a waiting list for a number, and that you might not be enrolled in the course.
