The Center for European Studies

25 Years After
The Fall of the Wall

October 21 – November 12, 2014

The Center for European Studies together with the History Club and the German Club invite Rutgers students to join them for the fall 2014 “Campus Week” film festival examining the 25\(^{\text{th}}\) anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall. The Embassy of Germany sponsors these annual events aimed at expanding US understanding of Germany and its modern role.

Film

21 October, 8:00 pm · Goodbye Lenin · Van Dyck 301, CAC
An East German women falls into a coma just before the fall of the Berlin Wall. When she awakens, her son must protect her from the shock of the enormous changes that have taken place, with highly entertaining results.

Wolfgang Becker, 2003

27 October, 9:00 pm · Sonnenallee · Dept. of German, 172 College, CAC
In this second comedy of the series, a group of young East Germans experiences the absurdities of everyday life, as the surprising porosity of the Berlin Wall is revealed. NB: This film will be shown in German without English subtitles.

Leander Haußmann, 1999

3 November, 9:00 pm · Barbara · Van Dyck 301, CAC
Barbara is an East Berlin doctor banished to the provinces. Can she make it out of East Germany altogether?

Christian Petzold, 2012

12 November, 5:15 pm · Yella · Center for European Studies, 102 Nichol, DC
In this thriller/parable set in early-unified Germany, Yella seeks to escape an abusive husband by moving from the former East Germany to the west.

Christian Petzold, 2007

The Center acknowledges the support and resources provided by the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany