challenging the periphery: charting new historical spaces

Join us for the 32nd Annual Warren I. Susman Graduate History Conference
Saturday, March 27, 2010
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Cook Campus Center, Biel Road
Breakfast will be served at 8:30 a.m.

Keynote address by April Masten, Associate Professor at SUNY Stony Brook

Session 1, 9:00-10:45
Room A  Claims of Territory, Claims of Self
Chair: Camilla Townsend

Room B  Racial Politics in the Americas
Chair: Dorothy Sue Cobble

Room C  Fashioning the Body, Refashioning the Polity
Chair: Paul Clemens

Session 2, 11:00-12:30
Room A  The Uses and Abuses of International Politics
Chair: Toby Jones

Room B  Feminist Expressions
Chair: Melissa Feinberg

Room C  Creating the Nation in Latin America
Chair: Temma Kaplan

Lunch and Keynote, 12:30-2:00

Session 3, 2:15-3:45
Room A  Religion in the Public Sphere
Chair: Jennifer Jones

Room B  Ideological Home Fronts
Chair: James Livingston

Room C  The Gendered Community at Home and at School
Chair: Suzanne Lebsock

Contact: susman2010@gmail.com