

Department of History

Van Dyck Hall

College Avenue Campus

848-932-7936

<http://history.rutgers.edu/>

Certificate Program in STEM in Society

Please submit your completed Declaration Form to Anuja Rivera in Van Dyck 111 or by email to advising@history.rutgers.edu.

REQUIREMENTS: Successful completion of 5 courses from the attached list.

STUDENT INFORMATION:

Name: _____ RU ID#: _____

Address: _____

Email address: _____

Undergraduate:

College: _____

Major: _____

Graduation month and year: _____

Course Title	Course number	Term/Year	Credits	Grade
		/	3
		/	3
		/	3
		/	3
		/	3

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY:

Application Approval:

Date Received: _____
Undergraduate Administrator

Certification Approval:

Requirements completed: Yes No
Undergraduate Administrator

Approved courses for STEM in Society Certificate:

(These courses can be shared with the History Major/ Joint Major or General History Minor.)

- 506:226 Contemporary Challenges in International Health
- 506:227 Health, Culture, and Society
- 506:233 History of the Future
- 506:247 The Seas around Us: Ocean History in Global Perspective
- 506:249 Climate Politics: A Deep History
- 506:250 Science, Collecting, and Power
- 506:252 History of Technology and Society I
- 506:253 History of Technology and Society II
- 506:255 Science, Nature, and Empire
- 506:321 Disease in History
- 506:325 Living on the Edge: Human Societies in Extreme Environments
- 506:249 Climate Politics: A Deep History
- 506:251 Science and Society
- 506:254 History of Oil
- 506:322 Black Death to Obesity Epidemic: History of Public Health in the West
- 506:324 History of AIDS Pandemic
- 508:255 Global Environmental History
- 508:328 History of Health and Healing in Africa
- 508:364 Environmental History of Latin America
- 510:248 The Last Climate Crisis: Histories of “The Little Ice Age” c. 1300-1800
- 512:121 Health and Environment in the U.S
- 512:210 Food in the United States and the World
- 512:221 Abortion: The Collision of History, Law, Religion, Medicine, and Human Rights in the 20th and 21st Centuries
- 512:229 History of Medical Ethics
- 512:230 History of Medicine in Film
- 512:235 Accidents & Disasters in the US & the World
- 512:237 Data: A Social History
- 512:328 Science in American Culture
- 512:321 Health Care and Society in the US
- 512:322 Drugs: A Social History
- 512:323 History of the North American Environment
- 512:324 History of the North American Environment
- 512:329 Technology & Nature in American History

- 880:210 The Edison Effect: Technological Innovation in American Culture
- 880:212 Science and Dollars: The Business of Innovation Since the Age of Edison

Courses offered from outside of the History Department, as well as the History Workshop (506:299) and History Seminar (506:401), will be taken into consideration and must be preapproved by the STEM & Society Advisors. Please note that the History Workshop and History Seminar courses must have a STEM-related topic.

Professor James Delbourgo jdelbourgo@history.rutgers.edu

Professor Jamie Pietruska pietrusk@history.rutgers.edu

When contacting the advisors for preapproval, please have a syllabus ready for the course you're seeking preapproval for.

You can learn more about this Certificate Program on the STEM in Society website - <https://history.rutgers.edu/academics/undergraduate/stem-in-society-minor>.