A Public Conversation with

Pieter Judson
Professor and Chair
Department of History
The European University Institute

Author of
The Habsburg Empire: A New History

4:00-5:30PM, Wednesday, September 5th
Rutgers Academic Bldg. Room 6051
15 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Introduced and moderated by Belinda Davis (History, Rutgers)
Panelists: Alison Hight, Timur Mukhamatulin, and Danielle Willard-Kyle (History, Rutgers)

Sponsored by Distinguished Speakers in European History

PIETER M. JUDSON, Professor and Chair of the Department of History at the European University Institute in Florence, is one of the world’s leading experts on the Habsburg Empire and modern European political and cultural history. Judson’s prize-winning books include Exclusive Revolutionaries: Liberal Politics, Social Experience, and National Identity in the Austrian Empire 1848-1914 (1996); Wien Brennt. Die Revolution 1848 und ihr liberales Erbe (1998); Guardians of the Nation. Activists on the Language Frontiers of Imperial Austria (2006). Most recently he authored the internationally acclaimed bestselling The Habsburg Empire: A New History (2016), which has already appeared in eight translations.