SET THE WORLD ON FIRE
Black Nationalist Women and the Global Struggle for Freedom

Keisha N. Blain
In this talk, award-winning historian Keisha N. Blain discusses how black nationalist women engaged in national and global politics during the twentieth century. In Chicago, Harlem, and the Mississippi Delta, from Britain to Jamaica, these women built alliances with people of color around the globe, agitating for the rights and liberation of black people in the United States and across the African diaspora.
