

RUTGERS CENTER FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES

Gap, Lens, or Window?

Looking at Wehrmacht Chaplains and the Holocaust

Doris Bergen (Toronto)

Wednesday, April 14, 4:30 PM EDT

Register here

Doris L. Bergen is Chancellor Rose and Ray Wolfe Professor of Holocaust Studies. Her books include Twisted Cross: The German Christian Movement in the Third Reich (1996); War and Genocide: A Concise History of the Holocaust (2003); The Sword of the Lord: Military Chaplains from the First to the Twenty-First Centuries (edited, 2004); and Lessons and Legacies VIII (edited, 2008). Prof. Bergen has held many grants and fellowships, and has been guest professor at the Universities of Warsaw, Pristina, and Tuzla. Her current projects include a book on Germany military chaplains in the Nazi era; and a study of definitions of Germanness as revealed in the ethnic Germans of Eastern Europe during World War II. Bergen is a member of the Academic Advisory Committee of the U. S. Holocaust Memorial Museum.

Cosponsored by
Dept. of History

RUTGERS
School of Arts and