

REPAIRING THE PAST

'The Innocent Victims Have Been Rehabilitated': Memory Practices and Restorative Justice in the Post-Stalin USSR

Samuel Casper (Hunter College)

Tuesday, November 29, 11am-1pm
Academic Building West Wing, Room 6051

Followed by catered lunch

In-person, pre-read paper & discussion

Email ko239@history.rutgers.edu to request paper

Samuel Casper is an Adjunct Assistant Professor in the Department of History and Center for Jewish Studies at Hunter College, CUNY. He holds a Ph.D. in modern Russian history from the University of Pennsylvania and a B.A. in history from the University. He has previously been a writer-in-residence at NYU's Jordan Center for the Advanced Study of Russia and taught in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at Cooper Union. His research has been supported by the American Councils for International Education, the Bradley Foundation, and the Kennan Institution. His manuscript, tentatively titled The Bolshevik Afterlife: Posthumous Rehabilitation in the post-Stalin Soviet Union, is currently in preparation.