

Rutgers Center for European Studies

World-Renowned Director CHRISTIAN PETZOLD

in conversation with
Fatima Naqvi (Yale)

On the 2018 film Transit

Register here

SEE THE FILM AT <https://rutgers.kanopy.com/video/transit-1>

Petzold is a German filmmaker and screenwriter living in Berlin. He grew up in West Germany and studied under Harun Farocki at DFFB, the German Film Academy. His films, which include Jerichow, Phoenix, and Transit, have received international critical acclaim and awards.

Naqvi is professor of Germanic Languages and Literatures and Media Studies at Yale University. She has published widely on authors and filmmakers of the 20C and 21C, including her work on Michael Haneke's film The White Ribbon.

Thursday, April 22, 11 AM

NB: discussion language German with translation in English
Q&A in English and German

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences